

Representative Bob Morris

Indiana House of Representatives: 2010 – present

House District 37: Portions of Allen County, including the city of Fort Wayne and most of St. Joe Township

Address: 200 W. Washington St., Indianapolis, IN 46204

Committees:

- Vice Chair: Commerce, Small Business and Economic Development
- Employment, Labor and Pensions
- Roads and Transportation

Interim Study Committee

- Commerce and Economic Development
- Employment and Labor
- Environmental Adjudication Director Selection Panel

Telephone:

- (317) 232-9769 Direct Line
- (800) 382-9841 Toll Free

Education:

- Bachelor's degree in Management and Strategy at Indiana University

Occupation:

- Small business owner

State Representative Bob Morris was born in Streator, Illinois, and moved to Fort Wayne in 1976. Residing in the area of Allen County that is now defined as the 84th House District.

Morris attended Saint Charles Borromeo Catholic School, Bishop Dwenger High School and Indiana University.

A graduate of Indiana University, Rep. Morris has spent the last twelve years founding four entrepreneurial ventures. Representative Morris operates his business from the 84th District.

Rep. Morris has a track record of responsible involvement in the Northeast Indiana Business Community:

- In 2001, Rep. Morris was elected President of the Georgetown Merchant Association.
- In 2003, Rep. Morris was selected by the Indiana Humanities Council to receive the Governor's Award for Tomorrow's Leaders.
- 19983 World You Day Participant, Denver, CO, representing the Diocese of Fort Wayne-South Bend.
- Actively works to retain college graduates in Indiana.

Rep. Morris demonstrates traditional commitment in his community. He and his family attend, and are active in, Saint Charles Borromeo Catholic Church.

- In 1995, he represented the Fort Wayne-South Bend Diocese at World Youth Day in Manila, Philippines.
- In the Jubilee Year 2000, Rep. Morris was a state-sworn officer of the New Haven Police Department (Reserves).

Rep. Morris has been married to Erin for 17 years and they have seven children. The family is active in the Arlington Park Neighborhood Association in Northeast Fort Wayne.