

State Representative Greg Steuerwald

Indiana House of Representatives: 2007-Present

House District 40: Hendricks County

Leadership Position: Assistant Majority Caucus Chair

Committees:

- Chairman of Judiciary Committee
- Chairman of Statutory Committee on Ethics
- Courts and Criminal Code
- Rules and Legislative Procedures
- Criminal Code Evaluation Committee

2015 Interim Study Committees:

- Interim Study Committee on Courts and the Judiciary, Vice Chair
- Code Revision Commission
- Interim Study Committee on Corrections and Criminal Code

Address: Box 503, Danville IN 46122-0503

Telephone: Statehouse (800) 382-9841

Occupation: Attorney - Steuerwald, Zielinski & Witham

Education: Preparatory education, Indiana State University (B.S., 1974); University of Alabama – Masters in Criminal Justice (1977). Legal education: I.U.-Indianapolis (J.D., 1981). Member of the Hendricks County and the Indiana State Bar Associations.

Activities:

- Avon United Methodist Church
- Danville Chamber of Commerce

Prior to attending law school, Representative Steuerwald utilized his Masters in Criminal Justice by serving as a Probation Officer for two years. While attending Indiana University-Indianapolis, he served as an intern in the Hendricks County Prosecutor's Office. Upon graduation from law school, he joined his present law firm and has been there since 1981.

His firm has represented various units of local government including towns, libraries and townships. Rep. Steuerwald's law firm presently represents the Hendricks County Board of Commissioners, the Hendricks County Plan Commission and Board of Zoning Appeals, the Hendricks County Health Department, Hendricks Regional Health and the Hendricks County Solid Waste Management District.

In 1996, Rep. Steuerwald received the Hendricks County Outstanding Economic Development Award. He is a certified Probation Officer with the State of Indiana Department of Corrections.

He is also a registered mediator and received a Certificate of Recognition in Family Mediation Training through the Indiana Continuing Legal Education Forum.

During the 2013, 2014 and 2015 legislative sessions, Rep. Steuerwald focused on implementing laws that will keep Hoosiers safe in our communities. He authored House Enrolled Act (HEA) 1006 which laid the foundation for a revision of Indiana's criminal code, the code has not been revised in over 30 years. The new code provides for certainty in sentencing and keeps the most violent offenders in prison longer. Victims will be fully informed of how long the offender's sentence will actually be. HEA 1006 creates a qualified committee to thoroughly study the proposed rewrite of the Indiana Criminal Code.

Rep. Steuerwald was born on September 12, 1952, in Terre Haute, Indiana and resides in Avon, Indiana. He has three grown children: Joshua Garver, D.D.S.; Jordan Gorgievski, and Adam Steuerwald.