

STATE REP. JACK JORDAN

House District 17: Marshall and large portions of Fulton

Committees:

- Commerce, Small Business and Economic Development
- Education
- Veterans Affairs and Public Safety

Hometown: Bremen, IN

Occupation:

- Business Consulting — Pharmaceutical Industry, Start-ups, Strategic Planning, Marketing Plans, Risk Assessment, etc.
- Partnership: Construction — New home construction and renovations
- Bremen Castings, Inc. — Board of Directors

Education:

- Bremen Public Schools, Class of 1979
- Purdue University, 1980- Industrial Management Studies (1 year) - Distinguished Dean's List
- Liberty University, 1984- Bachelor of Science Degree - Graduated "Summa Cum Laude"
- Krannert Graduate School of Management, Purdue University, 1988- Masters Degree in Business- Designated "Krannert Scholar"
- Mendoza College of Business, University of Notre Dame, 2005- Executive Certificate in Management (1 year program)

External Corporate Executive Training Programs:

Financial Management – University of Chicago

Strategic Planning – Duke University

Critical Thinking and Decision Making – Indiana University

Strategic Product Management – Dartmouth University

Quantitative Market Research – Purdue University

Situational Leadership – Stanford University

Numerous internal Lilly training programs: TQM, Leadership – Insights, Values-Based Leadership

Community Involvement:

- Compassion International
- Indiana Republican Party Delegate and Member of Platform Committee, 2010
- Jordan Family Scholarship
- Lifetime "All-American" John Purdue Club member
- Medical mission trip to Haiti

- Nappanee Missionary Church
- Numerous “Marshall County Community Conversation” meetings (e.g. PLTW)
- United Way
- Vice-President, John Purdue Club, Marshall County

Not-For-Profit Experience:

- Initiatives in Romania, 2006 – Present
 - Speaker at annual church leadership conference
 - College scholarship program for orphans and poor village students
 - Orphanage support and visits
- India Scholarship Initiative
 - Post-secondary training scholarship program (2013: 14 students, 2014: 15 students, 2015: 18 students), 2013 – Present
- Leadership Marshall County – Participant and Graduate, 2007-2008
- Marshall County Community Foundation (MCCF)
 - Executive Committee, 2005 – 2010, 2015:
 - Chaired Asset Development Committee, 2005 – 2010, 2015:
 - Chaired Investment Committee, 2008 – 2010:
 - Chair Human Resource Committee, 2015:
 - Co-leader of Lilly Grant Request Contingency
- National Alliance on Mental Illness – National Advisory Board, 1999 – 2003
 - Public Service: Undiagnosed Severe Mental Illness
 - Legislative & Lobbying Committee
- Working Committee: “Comprehensive 20-Year Plan” for Bremen (Economic, Education, Infrastructure, Development, Parks) in Partnership with Ball State, 2014 – 2015

A seventh-generation resident of Marshall County, Jordan grew up on a small farm in the Bremen area. He graduated from Bremen High School and earned degrees from Purdue University, Liberty University, Krannert School of Management at Purdue University and Mendoza College of Business at University of Notre Dame. He and his spouse, Dr. Hope Jordan, are the parents of Jack Jordan and Hope Amor, who is married to Nick Amor. Jordan is involved in United Way, Nappanee Missionary Church and is a lifetime “All-American” John Purdue Club member.